Step by Step in God's Word

There are some Bible verses that are so important, so crucial to our understanding the Christian faith, that every Christian should know them by heart. The Christian Education Ministry of FPCD is challenging everyone to learn these verses over the next 2 years. That's right, a verse a week.

Each week a new verse will be printed in the bulletin and we encourage you to learn it during the week. We hope every group in the church will take up the challenge and review the week's verse at your gatherings.

Let us help each other imprint God's Word on our hearts.

VBS Thanks

I'd like to thank all those who helped decorate for VBS. Our café and small town looked great. Bob Missler built our café counter. Diane Missler designed our shops for our Hometown USA. Jim and Nancy Barber and Bonnie Andrew helped paint our shops and café. The Tuesday Men's Fellowship helped set up the stage, moved the heavy dividers, and put up scenery. The Children's Church kids and Sierra Mathews colored many pictures to brighten up our space. And Wendy Palmer, Lori Mathews, and Jamie Palmer were invaluable custodians, helping wherever was needed. Thank You all. You made my job as decorating coordinator much easier.

Summer Sunday School

Our adult Sunday School class is enjoying the Faith Lessons by Ray Vander Laan. We have moved into Asia Minor to better understand how the Gospel spread. Join us in the North Parlor on Sundays at 9am.

Ann Bleivik
Educational Coordinator

Happy August to you! It has been wonderful getting to know the 6th-12th grade students this summer. We've been seeking God, having fun, and growing together in Christ's Spirit. The vision for CREW this month is to pray to God to show us His love and His truth. We're doing this by learning the F-E-L-L-O-W-S-H-I-P prayers in Sunday school to grow our inner person. In CREW we've used Francis Chan's Basic Series to love God and each other more at the deepest level, challenging each other to rely on God's grace.

As we look toward the school year, our goal is to create loving relationships that keep us connected with God in the busy times. MAN NIGHT on Friday the 12th will be a great opportunity for the guys to be guys, and learn what it means to be fellow warriors in this age of darkness. The Mid-High Progressive Dinner is scheduled for the evening of Saturday the 20th. The kids will experience the importance of sharing our food, homes and hearts with one another as we fellowship together. The Sr. High Prayer Retreat on the 26th and 27th will allow the 9th-12th grade students to seek together the deeper things of God. We'll use the Forgotten God book to guide us through the biblical identity of the Holy Spirit, and how to pray to the Father with Him, through Jesus.

I'm so excited about God guiding us into more steadfast relationships with Him this month! There is no higher pleasure on this earth than experiencing the love and transforming power of God! Please pray for CREW this month as we seek Him.

In Christ,
Jonathan Mallard

Former FPCD Pastor Richard Danielak passed away July 7. Richard was ordained to the ministry in 1959, serving 21 years as a Roman Catholic priest.

After his marriage to Rose in 1980 he became a Presbyterian minister. Churches he served were in Whiting, IN, Xenia, OH, Dayton, OH, Sanford, FL, Dearborn, Detroit and Livonia, MI. He also served as a hospital chaplain in Lima, OH. From the age of fourteen, when he went to a seminary, his life was wrapped up in his calling to be a priest and later as a minister, yet the highlight of his life was being married to "my Rosie." Please keep Rose in your prayers.

Our sincere condolences to the family of Jo Etta Callaway, who passed away June 25th. Jo Etta was a member of FPCD until she & her husband Ben (now deceased) moved Springfield, MO.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY -- FALL/WINTER (2011-2012)

Following the more than 100 years of Bible studies written for women by women in the Presbyterian church, we are offering a new Bible study "Confessing the Beatitudes". This study written by Margaret Aymer, professor of New Testament studies and an ordained minister in the Presbyterian church, will offer important insights into the scripture and guide us in learning what it means to speak the truth about who God is calling us to be.

Join us in this exciting new study beginning Thursday, September 8, 2011 (10:00-11:30a.m.) in the North Parlor. Study guides will be available at the first session.

Touch of Hope Back to School Offering

We have 21 students in the Touch of Hope program in need of backpacks and supplies this year.

On Sunday, August 7 we are asking congregation members to sign up to donate school supplies to the children in the Touch of Hope Ministry. Please bring donations to church no later than August 21. Requests for items will range from $7 up to $40. Please stop at the table in the Narthex on the 7th to decide what you would like to donate. Cash donations are always welcome; you can give a check at the table or donate money earmarked for Touch of Hope along with your church offering envelope. Volunteers will be needed to help make this offering successful. Our children are looking forward to a good school year and we can support them by giving them a good start with needed supplies. If you have any questions or want to volunteer time please contact Margie Maurer at (313) 563-9520. We thank you in advance for your continued support of the Touch of Hope Ministry.

To Prayers & Squares Quilt Ministry

Dear Friends,
I want to thank you all so much for such a wonderful thought for such a beautiful quilt. I just love it and appreciate the wonderful gift. I'm sure it was a great deal of work by the lot of you in the church.

After my accident it meant so much that you were so kind to me. God knows how much it means to me. As you know, I lost the use of my legs so I have to be taken around in the wheelchair, and will never be able to walk again.

Thankfully I love to paint and always enjoyed it so my hands keep me busy. But I hope you know how much it means for the wonderful quilt. It really means a lot for me to know how much you worked for me with God's love.

David is with a wonderful church family. My writing is not great. So remember, I am 90 years old. I love you all.

Pipe Organ Encounter Camp

In June, the Ann Arbor American Guild of Organists sponsored a week long Pipe Organ Encounter, a band camp for young organists. It was a hoot. Twenty four young people from ages 12-17 had daily organ lessons, conducting and hymn playing classes, sang in their own choir, worked with improvisation and 'contemporary' musics, along with faculty recitals every night on different organs-- culminating in their own recital on the final day. I had the pleasure of serving on the faculty, and below you see me teaching my two students (we were Pod 6) and a group shot at the University of Michigan School of Music. It is encouraging to see such talented young individuals who will serve as the next generation of our church musicians. Our youth are indeed the future of the Church.

~ Dr Timothy Huth, your Organist, SubDean of the Ann Arbor chapter of the AGO

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

One characteristic of man-made religion is that good folks go to Heaven and bad folks go to Hell; some even think that everyone goes to Heaven. The Bible, however, teaches that there are no folks good enough to meet God's holy standards (Romans 3:10-12, 23); none of us has enough merit to satisfy God. Unless God intervenes, we are all lost! The good news is that God did intervene -- this verse shows how God makes sinners holy through faith in Christ.

God called us to salvation (Romans 8:29, 30) and imputed our sin from us onto the innocent Jesus. Jesus became our substitute sin bearer when we received Him as Lord and Savior by faith (John 1:12). God then imputed Jesus' righteousness upon us (Romans 3:22) in place of our sins and corrupted goodness. This transaction is the core of the Gospel. Substitution and imputation were used in the Old Testament sacrifices, especially Passover and the Day of Atonement. Imputation was illustrated in Gen. 15:6; Isaiah 6:6; 53:11; 61:10; and Zech. 3:1-5. Both are illustrated in Philemon.

Why did God do that? Because He loves us despite our sin (John 3:16). Apart from Jesus we are condemned under God's wrath (John 3:36; Heb. 10:30, 31), for no one but Jesus has or can remove our sins (John 14:6).

Therefore, we are saved by God's grace (unmerited favor), not due to our works or merit (Eph. 2:8, 9), based on Jesus' righteousness, not ours. God saves us because He loves us as a father loves his wayward son (Luke 15:11-32).

If you are a Christian, rejoice in your blessings, share the good news with others, and continue your sanctification (Philippians 2:12, 13). If you are not yet a Christian, prayerfully commit yourself to Jesus as your Lord and Savior, repent from your sinful lifestyle, and thank God that He has enabled you to do so (1 Cor. 12:3).

God Bless,
~ John Holden

Medicare, MPRO & You: Know Your Medicare Rights

I recently worked with a woman who had back surgery and was told that she was being discharged without rehabilitation, just 2 days after surgery! She was weak, lived alone and was very concerned about her ability to safely take care of herself. When she told me about the hospital's discharge plans for her, I immediately gave her the information for MPRO. She contacted them and after a short review, within a day, MPRO contacted the Social Worker and arranged for 7-10 days of rehabilitation. What a relief for the woman! When she told me how things had worked out, I realized that many Medicare recipients may not know about their rights or this service.

Did you know that if you are asked to leave the hospital or rehabilitation center before you feel you are ready, you have the right to request a review/appeal? As a Medicare beneficiary you are entitled to receive quality health care. As a beneficiary you have the right to:

- Receive appropriate medical care
- Be fully involved in your care
- Appeal a health care decision or report a complaint about your health care
- Know what Medicare covers and what costs you are responsible for

To ensure that you receive the care you deserve, Medicare partners with Quality Improvement Organizations (QIOs) throughout the United States. In Michigan, MPRO serves as the federally designated QIO. MPRO works with providers, beneficiaries, and caregivers to build awareness about Medicare rights and handle beneficiary complaints and appeals.

So here is the information:

1-800-365-5899 or www.mpro.org

You can contact MPRO 24 hours a day/7 days a week - including holidays*

(*Note: Appeals calls received outside of normal business hours are taken by an answering service and returned by MPRO the next day.)

And as always, don't forget that you can always call me if you need additional advocacy! My cell phone number is (313) 575-5853 and I am in the office Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings.

Blessings,
Chris Mayer, Parish Nurse

MISSION SEWING - NOT JUST FOR SEWERS

Mission Sewing is a ministry of Presbyterian Women. This ministry provides clothing, linens, school supplies, baby layettes, and many other similar articles for hospitals, charities, overseas charities, nursing homes and shelters, which in turn give them to the needy. When it was first instituted, the articles were mostly sewn by the ladies who made up Presbyterian Women. Today most of the articles provided are purchased mainly because there simply are not enough sewers with the time needed to complete the needed articles. Also the needs extend beyond those items that can be sewn at home or at the church. So each year at about this time we ask our congregation for donations of items which the Presbytery committee tells us are needed by the various charities they will work with that year. This list is available in the church narthex until the end of August. Please stop by our table and pick up a card with the item(s) which you may wish to donate. The items may be brought to the church any time until September 24. You may wish to partner up with another person for the more expensive items. Last March our church sewers hemmed 27 baby blankets. Some of the women have knitted baby hats, preemie blankets, and booties. But many other items are needed. Please help. If you have any questions, you may call me at (313) 336-2772 or email me at olimpiatodor36@gmail.com.

Yours in Christ,
Olimpia Todor
Mission Sewing Chairperson
